Kajol Steals the Spotlight In A Classic Black Saree

Published on 01 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

Ace designer Manish Malhotra marked a significant milestone in his illustrious career as he made his debut as a film producer with Gustaakh Ishq under his production banner Stage 5. The grand premiere held in Mumbai turned into a star-studded affair, bringing together some of the biggest names from the Hindi film industry.

The evening saw the film's lead actors Fatima Sana Shaikh and Vijay Varma grace the red carpet, along with an impressive lineup of celebrities including Rekha, Kajol and Janhvi Kapoor, adding glamour and gravitas to the launch.

Kajol's Elegant All-Black Statement

Among the many standout moments of the night, Kajol emerged as one of the most talked-about style icons at the premiere. The evergreen Bollywood diva turned heads in an elegant all-black saree ensemble that perfectly balanced timeless charm with contemporary flair.

Kajol opted for a sleek black saree draped in a fuss-free silhouette that highlighted her natural poise and grace. The saree was accentuated with a delicate gold embroidered border, while the soft, flowing fabric added an ethereal touch to her overall look.

She paired the saree with a black lace blouse, introducing a modern edge to her traditional attire. The sheer full lace sleeves added subtle texture and contrast, making the ensemble a seamless blend of classic elegance and contemporary styling.

Minimal Glamour, Maximum Impact

Staying true to her signature aesthetic, Kajol kept her accessories refined and impactful. She chose a statement gold choker necklace with matching earrings, elevating the look without overpowering it
