

Shah Rukh Khan's Luxe Style Moment: ₹4.6 Crore Watch & Sabyasachi Jewellery

Published on 01 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

Shah Rukh Khan, Bollywood's reigning style icon, once again made a bold fashion statement that captured widespread attention. At the prestigious IIFA Awards, the actor blended high fashion with haute horology, showcasing a look that stood out as much for its sartorial grace as for its luxurious accessories.

A Dapper Ensemble with Statement Pieces

King Khan's outfit featured tailored elegance with a relaxed flair — a brown satin shirt worn with open buttons, a rust-toned black blazer with a glossy finish and rolled-up sleeves, paired with dark green tailored pants. Brown loafers and perfectly gelled hair completed the overall polished look that balanced sophistication with ease.

However, it was Shah Rukh Khan's accessories that truly became the centre of attention. On his wrist, he wore a ₹4.6 crore Audemars Piguet Royal Oak Double Balance Wheel Openworked watch, a remarkable timepiece known for its intricate mechanics and stunning design — a favourite among luxury watch collectors worldwide.

Sabyasachi Jewellery Adds Indian Luxe

Complementing the high-end watch was a layered gold chain necklace by acclaimed Indian designer Sabyasachi Mukherjee, underscoring the actor's flair for mixing global luxury with Indian craftsmanship.

Sabyasachi's jewellery — often spotlighted at international fashion events and worn by celebrities across the world — has become synonymous with Indian-inspired opulence and artisanal detail. The brand's fine jewellery lines have expanded in recent years, with new flagship boutiques and enhanced global presence, reflecting its influence in the luxury space.

Shah Rukh Khan's choice to pair such high-value accessories with a classic yet contemporary outfit reflects his evolving fashion identity — one that deftly navigates global glamour and cultural rootedness. With accessories that range from luxury Swiss watches to artisanal Indian jewellery, SRK continues to define red-carpet menswear moments that are as talked about for their aesthetic as they are for their craftsmanship.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com