

Dr. Pravin Ahirrao's Journey: 15 Years of Transforming Lives

Published on 05 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

Dr. Pravin Prabhakar Ahirrao, the visionary Director and Owner of Uma Multi-Speciality Hospital and Critical Care Centre, as well as Owner of Sai Seva Multi-Speciality Hospital and Life Line Multi-Speciality Clinic, has been recognized with the prestigious Maharashtra Business Icon Health Award for his outstanding contributions to healthcare over the past fifteen years.

A dedicated professional, Dr. Ahirrao has successfully treated thousands of patients in Nashik, performing numerous surgeries at minimal costs and ensuring life-changing care for economically disadvantaged communities. During the COVID-19 pandemic, over 1,800 patients were treated and discharged home under his guidance, earning him widespread acclaim and several local awards.

Humble Beginnings and Academic Excellence

Born in 1983 in Dhule, Maharashtra, Dr. Ahirrao rose from modest circumstances to pursue his education with dedication. He completed his primary and secondary education at Trimurti Marathi School, Untwadi, Nashik, followed by higher studies at KTHM College. Excelling in the Maharashtra CET, he secured admission to Dhule Medical College and later earned his MD from Mumbai Medical College.

Building Uma Hospital: A Legacy of Affordable Healthcare

In 2012, Dr. Ahirrao launched Life Line Multi-Speciality Clinic in a small residential space, emphasizing high-quality medical care at affordable rates. The clinic quickly gained popularity for its patient-centered approach.

As demand for his services grew, Dr. Ahirrao chose to lead Uma Multi-Speciality Hospital, expanding it into a comprehensive healthcare facility in New Nashik CIDCO. The hospital today provides specialized care in:

- Cardiology
- Neurology
- Urology
- Orthopedics
- Pediatrics
- General Surgery
- Gynecology

Under his leadership, Uma Hospital has grown from a 25-bed facility to a 101-bed multi-specialty hospital over the past decade. Dr. Ahirrao has ensured that underprivileged patients have access to healthcare through numerous government schemes, including Ayushman Bharat, Jeevan Dayi Jyotiba Phule Yojana, ESI, and CGS Fund, making the hospital a trusted destination for quality, affordable medical care.

Recognition and Impact

For his unwavering dedication to patient care, particularly for economically disadvantaged communities, Dr. Pravin Prabhakar Ahirrao has been honored by the Maharashtra Business Icon Health Awards. His work exemplifies how a family-driven, community-focused healthcare institution can grow into a model of excellence, transforming lives while setting new benchmarks in medical service delivery.

Uma Multi-Specialty Hospital & Critical Care Centre, Nashik today stands as a symbol of accessible, high-quality, and ethical healthcare, serving thousands of patients every year.

Selected for Maharashtra's Prestigious Awards
