Bollywood star Alaya F has already sparked major fashion buzz for 2026 after debuting a stunning designer saree look that's turning heads across the style world. The actress and style icon rang in the New Year by sharing images of herself in a custom silk saree from JJ Valaya's luxury collection, worth approximately Rs 2.5 lakh.

The ensemble featured a midnight blue silk velvet blouse enriched with antique gold metallic embroidery, sequins, zari and crystal embellishments, paired with a delicately printed silk drape and a scalloped sequin-embroidered border that added refined texture to the entire look.

Alaya embraced a regal yet modern Indian aesthetic—blending traditional craftsmanship with contemporary styling. Her minimal yet impactful jewellery choices kept the focus on the outfit itself, while a soft-glam makeup palette and a small bindi elevated the overall silhouette.
