

Saksham Computers Completes 25 Years as Jalna's Most Trusted Training Institute

Published on 06 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

Saksham Computers, one of Jalna city's most respected names in computer education, has proudly entered its 25th year of service, marking a remarkable journey of growth, trust, and technological excellence. Founded in 2002 by Kalyan Ramakant Dabhadkar, the institute has evolved from a modest setup with a single computer into Jalna's No.1 and most trusted computer training centre.

A Journey That Began with One Computer

When Saksham Computers was established in 2002, it started with just a single PC and a strong vision—to make quality computer education accessible to students and professionals in Jalna. At a time when digital literacy was still emerging, the institute laid a strong foundation by focusing on practical knowledge, discipline, and student-centric learning.

Over the years, this humble beginning transformed into a success story built on consistency, hard work, and trust.

Trusted Name in Computer Education

Today, Saksham Computers is widely recognized as the most trusted computer training institute in Jalna city. Thousands of students have passed through its classrooms, gaining not only technical skills but also confidence to succeed in academics, jobs, and entrepreneurship.

The institute's credibility has been strengthened through:

- Result-oriented training
- Industry-relevant courses
- Ethical teaching practices
- Long-term student trust and word-of-mouth recognition

Best-in-Class Infrastructure and Advanced Technology

One of Saksham Computers' key strengths is its modern infrastructure and use of advanced technology. The institute has continuously upgraded its facilities to match evolving industry standards, ensuring students receive hands-on exposure to the latest tools and systems.

From updated computer labs to a professional learning environment, Saksham Computers reflects a future-ready approach to education.

Commitment to Sustainability with Green Energy

In a progressive move, Saksham Computers has also adopted green energy solutions by installing a solar power facility. This initiative highlights the institute's commitment not only to technological advancement but also to environmental responsibility—setting an example for educational institutions in the region.

Visionary Leadership of Kalyan Ramakant Dabhadkar

Behind the success of Saksham Computers stands its founder and owner, Kalyan Ramakant Dabhadkar, whose vision, dedication, and perseverance have shaped the institute's journey over the last 25 years. His focus on quality education, continuous improvement, and ethical growth has been central to building Saksham Computers' strong reputation.

Selected for Maharashtra's Prestigious Awards

Recognizing his dedication and achievements, he has been selected for the prestigious "Maharashtra Business Icon 2025 / Maharashtra Style Icon 2025 / Maharashtra Fashion Icon 2025" awards.
