

Wrapped in Pearls: Tara Sutaria Exudes Classic Glamour

Published on 07 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

In her latest appearance, Tara embraced a classic silhouette with her pearl-detailed ivory saree, styled in a way that feels both traditional and contemporary. The soft tonal palette and pearl accents created a sleek, polished look that stood out without flashy embellishments — a lesson in modern elegance.

This look aligns with the current trend of pearls as statement fashion elements, a motif designers and stylists have been reintroducing into couture and celebrity wardrobes. From regal sarees to pearl-woven gowns and jewellery pieces, pearls are now a go-to for red carpet and high-fashion moments alike.

Styling That Speaks Sophistication

Tara's approach to styling kept the ensemble graceful and poised — letting the texture and craftsmanship of the look do the talking. This fashion choice underscores her growing reputation not just as a screen presence but a style icon who can balance classic grace with contemporary sensibilities.

Her look also serves as inspiration for those seeking timeless wedding or festive style ideas, especially for events where understated glamour reigns supreme.

Pearls: A Fashion Trend on the Rise

The resurgence of pearl-heavy designs among Bollywood celebrities signals a broader fashion moment where designers are marrying classic elements with modern silhouettes. Whether it's delicate pearl embroidery or bold jewellery statements, pearls are redefining red-carpet glam and cultural fashion aesthetics alike