Vidya Balan's Cobalt Blue Dress Steals the Spotlight

Published on 08 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood icon Vidya Balan once again captivated fashion fans with a stunning yet accessible outfit choice at the Reliance Foundation's "United in Triumph" celebration, where she proved that fashion impact doesn't require couture-level expense.

For the event, the acclaimed actress was photographed wearing a cobalt blue Zora dress from @shop63east, priced at around ₹13,000, paired with elegant heels that added to her poised and confident appearance on the carpet.

Vidya's look quickly made rounds on social media, with fans praising her effortless elegance and the democratic appeal of her outfit — a reminder that smart styling and personality can rival high-end designer wear. Video clips on platforms like Instagram and YouTube further showcased her timeless sense of style as she posed gracefully for photographers and captivated onlookers.

Known for her versatile fashion choices — whether traditional Indian sarees or contemporary western ensembles — Vidya continues to spotlight how affordability and chic aesthetics can go hand-in-hand on high-visibility occasions.
