

Significant Contribution of Idoodle Education in Design and Architecture Education

Published on 12 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

Idoodle Education, an institution that has established a strong national and international identity from Maharashtra in the field of design and architecture education, has been honored with two prestigious awards in 2025. The organization received the Global Leadership Award 2025 and the Business Icon Award 2025, recognizing its excellence and impact in the education sector.

At a grand ?????? held in New Delhi, the Global Leadership Award 2025 was presented to Idoodle Education by international cricket legend Virender Sehwag. This award acknowledges the institution's outstanding leadership in education, innovative curriculum design, and student-centric approach.

Additionally, at a ceremony ?????? in Nashik, Idoodle Education was conferred with the Business Icon Award 2025 by renowned senior actress Varsha Usgaonkar. This honor was awarded for building a value-driven, sustainable, and successful institutional model in the education sector.

Idoodle Education was founded in 2013 by directors Shantanu Parkhi and Revati Parkhi, with the vision of ensuring quality education, proper mentorship, and equal opportunities in the field of design and architecture. Today, Idoodle Education is widely recognized as a trusted coaching and guidance center for competitive entrance examinations such as NATA, NID, NIFT, UCEED, B.Des, B.Planning, and Fine Arts.

Rather than focusing solely on exam-oriented training, Idoodle emphasizes holistic development by nurturing creative thinking, design thinking, drawing skills, situation tests, and studio tests. The institution is deeply committed to making quality education accessible to students from rural and middle-class backgrounds.

Many students trained at Idoodle Education are currently pursuing successful academic careers at prestigious institutions across India, including NID, NIFT, SPA, IITs, and leading architecture and design colleges. According to the directors, student success is the true measure of Idoodle's achievement.

With these dual honors, Idoodle Education has further strengthened its position as a symbol of global leadership, credibility, and excellence in the education sector.
