

S.K. InfoTech Solutions: A Story of Vision, Education, and Growth

Published on 12 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

This is an inspiring success story of two brothers — Mr. Pradip Thorat, Founder, and Mr. Sandip Thorat, Co-Founder of S.K. InfoTech Solutions (Based on Shree Kotling Industries).

No beginning is truly small or big. With vision, perseverance, and self-belief, even the smallest start can lead to remarkable success. S.K. InfoTech Solutions stands as a powerful example of this belief.

Background: Roots of Hard Work and Dreams

Pradip and Sandip Thorat's father, Mr. Ajinath Thorat, migrated to Pune in 1995 from Ghoti village in Karmala taluka of Solapur district, carrying big dreams but limited resources. To support his family, he began selling incense sticks door to door.

Amid constant struggle and hard work, his dream of pursuing higher professional education remained unfulfilled. However, with unwavering determination, he ensured that both his sons received quality higher education — fulfilling through them what he could not achieve himself.

Early Struggles and First Steps into Business

Inspired by their father's sacrifices, Pradip and Sandip Thorat took up small jobs while pursuing their graduation. Alongside their studies, they actively supported their father's incense stick business and later started a small pooja material retail shop.

After completing their higher education, the brothers decided to expand the family business. This led to the establishment of Shree Kotling Industries, through which they began manufacturing and wholesale trading of pooja products.

Built on the principles of quality products, fair pricing, and trustworthy service, the company soon became a reliable partner for many small and medium retailers. By balancing traditional business values with modern management practices and professional discipline, they steadily strengthened the organization. Consistency, transparency, and long-term vision gave the business a new direction.

Business Expansion: Entry into the IT Sector

Stability in business is not the final stage of success — it marks the beginning of the next leap. Guided by this philosophy, the brothers took their next strategic step.

With an academic background in Information Technology, they leveraged their education to establish S.K. InfoTech Solutions, an IT services company. The firm provides services such as website development, digital marketing, computerized accounting solutions, and software support to businesses.

Today, S.K. InfoTech Solutions is successfully led by Mr. Pradip Thorat and Mr. Sandip Thorat, helping businesses adapt to the digital age with reliable and efficient technology solutions.

Leadership with Vision and Education

In today's competitive business environment, capital alone is not enough. Success requires clear thinking, education-driven decision-making, and long-term vision. The leadership of Pradip Ajinath Thorat and Sandip Ajinath Thorat reflects a perfect balance of all three.

More Than a Business Story

This success story is not just about a business group; it is a testament to the power of education, visionary leadership, and structured growth. The journey from pooja material trading to the IT sector showcases an entrepreneurial path built on learning, foresight, strong decision-making, and the ability to embrace change.

S.K. InfoTech Solutions stands as a symbol of modern entrepreneurship rooted in values, adaptability, and continuous progress.
