

Shree Sai Electrical: Kishor Rajput's Journey to Trust & Growth

Published on 13 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

In an era where infrastructure and connectivity define progress, success is built not just on technical skill but on trust, consistency, and vision. One such inspiring entrepreneurial journey is that of Mr. Kishor Rajput, the driving force behind Shree Sai Electrical & Services, Nashik, a reputed government electrical contracting and telecom services company.

Laying the Foundation of a Trusted Enterprise

Shree Sai Electrical & Services was established with a clear objective—to deliver reliable, high-quality electrical solutions in the fast-growing telecommunications and infrastructure sectors. Under the leadership of Mr. Kishor Rajput, the company steadily evolved from executing electrical works to becoming a dependable partner for major telecom and industrial clients.

Today, the company operates extensively across Maharashtra and Goa, while supplying electrical materials across India, reflecting its expanding footprint and growing credibility.

Strong Presence in the Telecom Sector

Shree Sai Electrical & Services has carved a strong niche in the telecom domain by working closely with leading industry players such as Reliance Jio, Indus Towers, ATC Towers, and other prominent telecom companies. The firm is actively involved in:

- Telecom site electrical works
- Tower erection and infrastructure development
- Tower and site maintenance
- Installation and commissioning
- Site operations and technical support

Its ability to execute projects efficiently and safely has made it a preferred contractor in the telecom ecosystem.

Government & Industrial Electrical Expertise

Beyond telecom, the company is also recognized as a Government Electrical Contractor, providing electrical works and material supply to MIDC companies and industrial units. With a focus on compliance, safety, and durability, Shree Sai Electrical & Services ensures projects meet government standards and client expectations.

Additionally, the company supplies high-quality electrical materials across India, strengthening its role as a comprehensive electrical solutions provider.

Vision Anchored in Quality and Trust

At the heart of the company's growth lies a clear vision—to become a leading name in the telecommunications and electrical sector by delivering quality-driven, timely, and trustworthy services.

Mr. Kishor Rajput emphasizes customer satisfaction as the highest priority, supported by:

- Safe and high-quality service delivery
- Effective use of modern technology
- Long-term professional and business relationships

The company's core values—Quality and Trust—are reflected in every project it undertakes.

An Inspiring Entrepreneurial Journey

The success of Shree Sai Electrical & Services is a testament to Mr. Kishor Rajput's dedication, technical understanding, and commitment to excellence. His journey highlights how focused leadership and ethical business practices can build a strong and sustainable enterprise in a competitive sector.

As India continues to expand its telecom and infrastructure network, Shree Sai Electrical & Services stands well-positioned to play a significant role—powering progress, one project at a time.

Selected for Maharashtra's Prestigious Awards
