

Sharvari Wagh Nails Bridesmaid Style at Sister's Wedding

Published on 14 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

Actress Sharvari Wagh recently turned heads with her impeccable fashion sense while attending her elder sister Kasturi Wagh's wedding festivities near Lonavala — a scenic and intimate lakeside venue just outside Mumbai. Known for her rising profile in Bollywood and refined sartorial choices, Sharvari's bridesmaid ensemble quickly became a topic of style conversation on social media.

Elegant Bridal Attendance and Fashion Highlights

For the ceremonies, Sharvari opted for a rich, glamorous look that balanced traditional charm with modern flair. In photos shared online, she was seen wearing a pearl gold silk zari tissue lehenga set — a luxurious and festive choice that blended classic embellishments with contemporary silhouette details. The outfit, teamed with statement jewellery and coordinated accessories, reflected both her personal style and the celebratory spirit of a close family wedding.

Wedding functions often showcase close family members as much as the bride, and Sharvari's choice stood out for its polished elegance, making her a standout bridesmaid amid the intimate celebrations.

Fashion Impact and Celeb Bridesmaid Trends

Sharvari's bridesmaid look reflects a broader trend seen among celebrities and influencers: bridesmaids donning ensembles that go beyond simple supporting roles to become style statements in their own right. With richly embroidered fabrics, coordinated tones, and thoughtful accessorising, such looks now often draw as much attention as the main bridal outfits themselves — a phenomenon celebrated across social platforms and fashion outlet

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com