

Celebrate Lohri in Style: Last?Minute Bollywood Fashion Tips

Published on 14 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

With Lohri 2026 around the corner — a vibrant harvest festival celebrated across North India with bonfires, music and feasts — fashion enthusiasts are turning to Bollywood celebrities for quick, chic outfit ideas that blend tradition with contemporary style. These celebrity-approved looks offer effortless inspiration for last-minute festive dressing.

Ethnic Elegance with a Modern Twist

Celebrated actresses and style icons have donned a range of ethnic outfits this season that are perfect for Lohri celebrations. Standout looks include richly embroidered salwar suits, sharara sets with festive prints, and coordinated kurta ensembles that balance traditional motifs with easy-to-wear silhouettes — ideal for family gatherings and bonfire nights.

For example:

- Sonam Bajwa chose a pastel embroidered suit that feels elegant yet understated.
- Kriti Sanon's green sharara set is a simple festive staple.
- Bright yellow kurta sets, such as those worn by Alia Bhatt, bring colour and joy to winter celebrations.

These outfits show how combining bold hues with traditional textures can create a polished yet comfortable festival look.

Versatile Looks for Every Festive Occasion

Bollywood influences extend beyond heavy ethnic wear. Celeb-inspired styling tips for Lohri often include:

- Co-ord sets and kurta pants that offer comfort without compromising style.
- Vibrant lehengas with delicate embroidery for evening celebrations.
- Velvet or silk suits to keep warm while embracing the festive theme.

These versatile pieces can be accessorised with statement jewellery — from jhumkas to layered necklaces — and paired with traditional footwear like mojaris or juttis to create a complete, picture-ready ensemble.

Styling Tips

To instantly elevate a Lohri outfit inspired by Bollywood glamour:

- Experiment with colours — bright reds, emerald greens, mustard yellows and magentas capture the festival's joyous spirit.
- Play with dupatta draping — try belt or cape styles to make even simple salwar suits stand out.
- Add elegant accessories like oxidised earrings or embellished clutches for a quick style upgrade.

These small touches help balance tradition and trend, allowing you to stand out at celebrations without needing an entirely new wardrobe.
