

Janhvi Kapoor Shines in Glittering Saree for Wedding Season

Published on 15 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood actress Janhvi Kapoor has once again made a striking fashion statement that's resonating with wedding-season style enthusiasts. Recently spotted in a shimmery silver-grey sari, Kapoor's look is being widely celebrated as perfect inspiration for bridesmaids and wedding guests alike — blending graceful traditional elegance with modern flair.

The ensemble, styled by her team and captured on social media, features subtle sequin detailing and a fluid drape that enhances movement while keeping the overall look refined and festive — ideal for wedding celebrations, sangeet nights or cocktail receptions.

Design Details That Turn Heads

Janhvi's sari is a standout for its light shimmer and effortless drape, created by designer Shehlaa Khan as part of the Subha Sari Set. The metallic undertones and delicate texture give the six-yard drape a refined sparkle that's eye-catching without outshining the bride — a key consideration for bridesmaid fashion.

A structured blouse complements the flowing sari silhouette, adding definition while maintaining a modern aesthetic. Her minimalist approach to accessories — including a sleek statement choker — allows the outfit's shine to take center stage without visual overload.

Beauty & Styling: Effortlessly Polished

Kapoor's beauty choices enhanced the ensemble's soft, sophisticated vibe. With her hair styled in centre-parted, gentle waves and makeup focused on a glow-centric finish — dewy skin, subtle eye shimmer and muted rosy lips — the overall effect feels both fresh and timeless.
