Behind every beautifully crafted space lies a vision, and behind DENEN Interior Design Studio stands the determined vision of Ms. Ruta Vijay Sawant—an architect who dared to redefine interior design standards in India.

“I was always driven by the desire to build something of my own,” says Ruta Sawant, Architect and Founder of DENEN. “The studio was founded with a clear intention—to bring uncompromising, international-standard design and execution to India. Every project we create is guided by thoughtful planning, refined aesthetics, and timeless functionality.”

A Vision Built on Excellence

What began as a modest three-member studio has transformed into a 50-member multidisciplinary design powerhouse in just five years. This remarkable growth reflects not only business success but also the trust DENEN has earned across residential, commercial, and institutional sectors.

Today, the studio proudly boasts over 500 completed projects, each carrying the signature DENEN philosophy—spaces that are elegant, functional, and built to endure. The firm’s journey has been strengthened through collaborations with some of the biggest names in the industry, including Architect Hafeez Contractor, renowned for iconic developments such as the Hiranandani Powai Township and The Imperial Towers.

DENEN has also partnered with leading organizations like Godrej Interio and L&T, and contributed to significant government initiatives including BKC development, Bandra roadworks, and landscape projects—a testament to the studio’s credibility and technical expertise.

Global Intelligence, Indian Context

A key strength of DENEN lies in its curated team of international designers who blend global design intelligence with local cultural understanding. This fusion allows the studio to create spaces that resonate with Indian lifestyles while meeting global benchmarks.

Ruta Sawant believes design is not just about aesthetics but about shaping experiences. Under her leadership, DENEN follows a client-first approach where every project—big or small—is handled with equal precision and respect.

Growth Rooted in Values

DENEN’s rapid expansion within five years is driven by unwavering commitment to quality, timely delivery, and ethical practice. The studio’s evolution from a small team to a large professional setup mirrors Ruta Sawant’s personal journey—one marked by perseverance, creative courage, and entrepreneurial spirit.
