

Sonam Bajwa's Minimalist Ethnic Look

Published on 20 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

Actress Sonam Bajwa turned heads with her elegant and understated fashion choice at the Border 2 music launch event, showcasing a soft blush-toned Anarkali that has quickly become a viral fashion moment online.

Understated Elegance in Ethnic Wear

At the star-studded musical celebration for the upcoming film Border 2—held against the scenic backdrop of the historic INS Vikrant—Sonam embraced a look that exemplified modern grace. Her outfit featured a flowing blush Anarkali with a round neckline and subtle front slit, punctuated by intricate silver embroidery that added depth without overwhelming the ensemble.

To complement the anarkali, she paired it with a matching sheer dupatta in a soft ivory-blush shade, letting the minimalist palette and exquisite craftsmanship take centre stage. Her styling resonated with fans and fashion followers, proving that less can be more in ethnic fashion when executed with poise and balance.

A Celebration of Poise Over Maximalism

In an era dominated by bold, statement-making looks, Sonam's choice stood out for its refined simplicity. The actress has been widely praised for her ability to balance traditional aesthetics with contemporary sensibilities—a trait that has helped cement her reputation as a fashion inspiration.

Her appearance comes as Border 2 gears up for its January 23, 2026 theatrical release, where she stars opposite Diljit Dosanjh, adding further excitement among fans not just for her performance but also her style evolution.

With social media buzzing over her refined blush-toned look, Sonam Bajwa's fashion choice at the Border 2 event demonstrates how understated elegance continues to resonate powerfully with audiences and style enthusiasts alike.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com