

Green Glamour: Shanaya Kapoor Makes a Fashion Statement

Published on 30 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood newcomer Shanaya Kapoor is turning heads off-screen as much as she does on it — and she's doing it in green. During promotional events for her upcoming film Tu Yaa Main, the actress has embraced a vibrant color palette, anchoring her looks around various shades of green and proving that bold stylistic choices can amplify a movie's buzz.

At multiple appearances tied to Tu Yaa Main, Shanaya showcased striking green ensembles that ranged from deep emerald gowns to playful, contemporary silhouettes. The coordinated outfits, each styled with clean, minimalist accessories and understated makeup, have drawn attention from fans and fashion watchers alike.

Her fashion direction complements the escalating anticipation around Tu Yaa Main, a film that blends romance, thriller, and energetic visuals, creating a distinctly youthful and modern vibe ahead of its release.

With this fashion moment, Shanaya isn't just promoting a movie — she's defining her own presence in the public eye, building a signature style that resonates with both cinema audiences and trendsetters

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com