

Jaipur Polo Style: Malaika Arora's Elegant Take on Regal Fashion

Published on 30 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood style icon Malaika Arora turned heads at the KogniVera Polo Cup 2026 held at the prestigious Rajasthan Polo Club in Jaipur, where she delivered a striking interpretation of modern royal dressing that perfectly matched the event's heritage-rich ambiance.

Against the backdrop of polo ponies and stately architecture, Arora opted for a crisp white gown that combined timeless elegance with contemporary design elements — a choice that resonated with Jaipur's regal charm while giving it a fresh, modern spin. Her look balanced sophistication and ease, reaffirming her reputation as a fashion-forward figure who knows how to adapt classic inspiration into current style language.

Fashion observers noted how her ensemble — minimalist yet impactful — reflected a thoughtful interplay between traditional royal aesthetics and modern tailoring, creating a compelling visual narrative suited to both the occasion and the locale. The choice highlighted how heritage events can serve as platforms for new expressions of style that honour the past while embracing the present.

By blending clean silhouettes with subtle couture touches, Malaika Arora showcased a contemporary approach to royal dressing that captivated onlookers and added a stylish highlight to Jaipur's polo social calendar.
