

Madhuri Dixit Stuns in ₹1.4 Lakh Green Silk Saree

Published on 02 Feb 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood icon Madhuri Dixit Nene once again captivated fans and fashion followers with a classic ethnic look — this time draped in a luxurious green silk saree valued at around ₹1.4 lakh. The striking ensemble, shared on her social media platforms, has sparked widespread admiration, adding another memorable moment to her long-standing reputation as a cultural style influencer.

The saree — reportedly from acclaimed designer Jayanti Reddy — stood out with its rich bottle-green silk fabric and intricate golden zardozi embroidery on both the borders and blouse, giving the outfit a sophisticated yet traditional appeal. Madhuri paired the drape with statement emerald-toned earrings, coordinated bangles, and a bold makeup look featuring berry-red lips, balancing elegance with contemporary flair.

Posting the photos with a caption referencing the classic song “Piya tose naina laage re,” the actress showcased a graceful pose that resonated with her followers, many of whom praised her timeless aesthetic and expressive styling.

At 58, Madhuri continues to set sartorial benchmarks during the 2026 wedding and festive season, effortlessly blending traditional silhouettes with modern glamour — a combination that keeps her at the forefront of fashion discussions in India.

Her choice of a high-value silk saree also reflects the growing trend of premium Indian textiles being embraced by celebrities, further boosting the visibility of heritage crafts in contemporary wardrobes.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com