Bollywood actress Sonam Kapoor Ahuja recently turned heads for her fashion-forward yet understated ensemble while hosting an intimate book club event with acclaimed author Kiran Desai, centred around The Loneliness of Sonia and Sunny. Despite being pregnant, Sonam demonstrated that comfort and style can go hand in hand, wearing an oversized biker jacket layered over a relaxed knit dress that complemented her calm, confident presence.

Her look struck a balance between relaxed and chic, demonstrating an evolving approach to maternity dressing that shuns clichés and embraces modern, wearable fashion even during significant personal moments.

Key Elements of the Outfit

Sonam chose a soft, bark-toned knit dress that gracefully accommodated her baby bump, creating a fluid silhouette that prioritised comfort without sacrificing elegance. She topped it with a leather biker jacket — oversized and slightly slouchy — bringing a hint of edgy contrast to the otherwise relaxed ensemble.

Accessories were kept deliberate but understated, with a deep-toned bag and minimalist jewellery that added subtle shine without overwhelming the outfit's effortless mood.

A New Take on Maternity Dressing

Sonam's choice for the evening reflects a broader shift in how maternity fashion is perceived — moving away from predictable silhouettes toward intentional, personality-driven looks. By pairing a structured biker jacket with soft knitwear, she showcased how blending textures and silhouettes can create a multidimensional style that feels both contemporary and personal.

Fans on social media celebrated the appearance not only for its aesthetic appeal but also for how naturally Sonam carried the outfit, reinforcing her reputation as a fashion icon who sets trends rather than follows them.
