

Bold in Black: Hailey Bieber's Fashion Moment at Sydney Premiere

Published on 13 Feb 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

Model, entrepreneur and fashion icon Hailey Bieber made a striking appearance at the Australian premiere of Wuthering Heights in Sydney on February 12, 2026, pulling focus on the red carpet with a daring, fashion-forward look. The event drew fans and fashion press alike as Wuthering Heights continues its international press tour ahead of its global release.

Bieber stepped onto the blue carpet in a sheer black lace ensemble by Saint Laurent by Anthony Vaccarello, embracing a blend of gothic romance and modern sensuality that mirrored the film's dramatic aesthetic. The show-stopping outfit featured a transparent Chantilly lace gown layered over tailored under-pieces, allowing the rich textile and structural details to shine while maintaining a bold, on-trend silhouette.

The floor-length dress was characterised by a plunging neckline, delicate floral lace, flared long sleeves and a skirt that flowed to the ground — all designed to evoke both Victorian allure and contemporary sophistication. Beneath the transparent overlay, a coordinating sheer bodysuit provided subtle coverage that complemented the lingerie-inspired styling, striking a balance between daring fashion and refined elegance.

Bieber opted for minimal accessories, letting the intricate lace gown take centre stage. She completed the look with black satin strappy heels and understated beauty — soft, natural-toned makeup and a chic centre-part bob that softened the dramatic ensemble.

The Wuthering Heights premiere provided a stage not only for rising cinema but also for stylish risk-taking. Bieber's choice reflected her reputation as a red carpet risk-taker who confidently blends classic glamour with contemporary fashion statements — a look that continues to attract attention and set trends.