

Sonale Jaykaar: An Inspiring Journey of Resilience, Entrepreneurship and Personal Growth

Published on 19 Oct 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

From overcoming early life challenges to working across education, beauty, career guidance and community initiatives, Sonale Jaykaar's journey reflects determination, adaptability and self-belief.

Life can present unexpected challenges, but determination and the willingness to begin again can help people discover new possibilities. Sonale Jaykaar's journey is an example of facing difficult circumstances and gradually building an independent identity through hard work and continuous learning.

After losing the support of her parents at just 14 years of age, Sonale began taking responsibility for shaping her own future. Despite the challenges she faced at a young age, she explored different professional opportunities, developed new skills and continued to expand her horizons.

Starting Young: From Saree Sales to a Beauty Academy

Sonale began her entrepreneurial journey at the age of 14 through a saree business. Just two years later, at the age of 16, she established a beauty parlour academy, taking an early step towards building a career in the beauty industry.

Alongside these activities, she began teaching students from Classes 1 to 10 in Bandra, Mumbai, and also developed an educational coaching academy. These early experiences brought together entrepreneurship, teaching and skill development.

Managing different responsibilities at a young age helped her explore her capabilities and gain experience in multiple fields. Her journey demonstrates how practical experience and a willingness to learn can contribute to personal and professional growth.

Expanding into Career Guidance and Coaching

Over time, Sonale Jaykaar broadened her professional interests beyond education and beauty services. Her areas of work came to include career guidance, business coaching, Vastu Shastra, astrology, numerology and mindset coaching. Through these diverse interests, she has sought to guide people in areas related to career decisions, personal development and business goals. Her multidisciplinary approach reflects her continuing interest in learning and working with people from different backgrounds.

In 2017, she appeared on Maharashtra Calling, a programme on SAAM TV Marathi. In 2024, she provided career guidance through a programme on TV9 Marathi. These television appearances helped introduce her work to a wider audience.

She has also received awards and recognition for her work in different fields, according to the information provided about her professional journey.

Connecting with Communities Through Social and Cultural Activities

Beyond her professional work, Sonale remains involved in social and cultural initiatives. Her activities include organising programmes connected with Indian culture, supporting events that bring families together and encouraging cricket competitions for children.

Such initiatives provide opportunities for people from different age groups to connect and participate in shared activities. Her involvement reflects an interest in strengthening community relationships and encouraging social participation alongside professional pursuits.

Embracing Change and Continuing to Grow

An important aspect of Sonale Jaykaar's journey is her willingness to explore new directions and keep developing herself. She believes in working consistently towards personal goals and approaching life with a positive outlook.

Moving across different professional fields requires adaptability, curiosity and a willingness to gain new knowledge. Her journey illustrates how these qualities can help individuals respond to changing circumstances and discover new ways to contribute.

A Story of Determination and Self-Belief

Sonale Jaykaar's story extends beyond her work in business, education, beauty and coaching. It is also a story of navigating adversity, believing in oneself and continuing to learn through different stages of life.

From starting a business as a teenager to exploring multiple professional and community-focused activities, she has worked towards creating her own identity. Her journey offers encouragement to those who face difficult circumstances and aspire to build a future through persistence, learning and self-confidence.

Contact Details

- Mobile: 9619206510
- Email: sonaalejaykar@gmail.com
- Website: <https://billionairedreamss.com/>