Karan Johar made a head-turning international fashion statement at the Cannes Film Festival 2025, proving once again why he’s a true style icon on and off Indian soil. Dressed in a dramatic, custom-designed Manish Malhotra bandhgala, KJo combined classic Indian tailoring with bold modern flair—offering serious Bridgerton-inspired elegance.

? Ivory Elegance with Theatrical Flair

For the red carpet, Johar opted for a floor-length ivory bandhgala jacket, complete with a woven jacquard collar, which exuded opulence and sophistication. He styled it with a ruffle-detailed ivory shirt underneath, creating a visual play of textures and heritage. But it was the exquisite accessories that truly made this look unforgettable.

? Brooches, Collar Pins & Emerald Drama

Karan’s bandhgala was heavily adorned with 18k gold brooches and collar pins, encrusted with over 14 carats of custom-cut emeralds. The detailing gave the look a luxurious edge, nodding to both regal fashion and contemporary red carpet styling. His accessories were not just ornamental—they added a historical, aristocratic vibe that many compared to the fashion of Netflix’s Bridgerton.

? Footwear & Finish

To round off the look, Karan wore glossy black heeled boots, adding just the right amount of edginess. His confident poses and commanding presence made sure all eyes were on him as he walked the iconic Cannes red carpet.

? At Cannes for “Homebound” Screening

Karan Johar is at Cannes with actors Ishaan Khatter and Vishal Jethwa for the screening of Neeraj Ghaywan's film Homebound, selected under the festival's prestigious Un Certain Regard section. With Martin Scorsese onboard as executive producer and Dharma Productions backing the project, Homebound is gaining global attention as a significant cinematic moment for India.

Karan Johar's Cannes appearance wasn't just about style—it was a masterclass in fusing Indian heritage with global fashion sensibility. With his bold ivory bandhgala, opulent brooches, and polished attitude, KJo once again proves he's not just a filmmaker—he's a fashion force.
