Seoul/Shanghai:

South Korean actress and K-pop star Hyeri has once again proven why she's a fashion icon. Her recent dress-over-jeans ensemble spotted at Shanghai airport is turning heads and setting social media ablaze, quickly being hailed as the ultimate style guide for young women.

The "Reply 1988" star seamlessly blended casual and chic by layering a breezy white shirt-dress over straight-fit denim jeans, paired with minimal accessories and comfy flats. The look has struck the perfect chord with Gen Z and millennial audiences who admire stylish comfort—especially when on the move.

Fashion experts are calling it a "bold yet relatable move", making it easy for everyday women to replicate without needing a celebrity wardrobe. The ensemble balances elegance with a laid-back vibe—ideal for students, young professionals, and travel lovers alike.

Since the appearance, the hashtag #HyeriAirportLook has trended across platforms like Instagram and X (formerly Twitter), with fans recreating her look and praising the star for offering a fresh take on practical glamour.

With Korean fashion already dominating global style charts, Hyeri's innovative flair has just added another feather in its cap.
