Isha Ambani's gown was handmade over months using the classic Bandhani technique, a traditional tie-dye method from Kutch.

Isha Ambani, daughter of businessman Mukesh Ambani and wife Nita Ambani, often makes headlines for her fashion choices and involvement in cultural events. Now, Isha Ambani has collaborated with Roberto Cavalli for a couture gown, which was handmade over months. The bright pink sleeveless gown beautifully fuses Indian craftsmanship with Italian couture using the classic bandhani technique from Kutch, crafted by local artisans.
