Delhi | July 24, 2025 – The grand stage of Hyundai India Couture Week 2025 opened with none other than Tamannaah Bhatia, who lit up the runway as the showstopper for ace designer Rahul Mishra. The event, being held in Delhi, marks the 18th edition of the highly-anticipated fashion spectacle.

Tamannaah graced the ramp in not one, but two stunning couture ensembles from Mishra's latest collection titled 'Becoming Love' — a celestial-inspired showcase that blended Western silhouettes with intricate Indian craftsmanship. With textures drawn from the moon and shimmering galactic motifs, the ensembles made an ethereal statement, perfectly complimented by Tamannaah's elegant presence.

Post-show, the actress interacted with the media and was all heart when asked about Bollywood's favorite newlyweds-turned-parents, Sidharth Malhotra and Kiara Advani. Speaking to ANI, Tamannaah shared,

"I did message... I did message and they both are just the cutest couple ever. We all always root for them. Both Kiara and Sid are just two amazing people."

The couple, who tied the knot in a dreamy ceremony in February 2023, recently welcomed their first child, receiving love and blessings from fans and peers alike.

As Rahul Mishra's collection set the tone for what promises to be a high-fashion week, Tamannaah's runway presence and her heartfelt gesture towards Sid and Kiara added a touch of stardust to an already glamorous evening.
